II SPAIN-US CHAMBER GOLF TOURNAMENT 2020

MEET SPAIN,
MEET US.

Given the success of the Spain-US Chamber Golf Tournament 2019, we are celebrating our second edition to promote networking and boost potential business relationships.

Our experience has shown the positive results of networking events in a sport environment. This type of events not only allow us to bring together professionals from different industries but help companies generate new business relationship in an executive but relaxed environment.

The Spain-US Chamber of Commerce is a private non-profit organization that promotes business and international relations and is officially recognized by the Governments of Spain and the United States. It helps its members to achieve their objectives, facilitating the entry and development of their business in the American market and offering international trade, consulting and marketing services. It currently has more than 500 members, serving as a link between Spain, the United States and Latin America through its various activities.
