

Position: Operations & Maintenance Manager.

Location: San Diego, California.

About the position:

Exciting opportunity for a dynamic O&M Manager profile to join a leading company in the Renewable Energy & Solar industry.

Our team is growing, and we are hiring for a motivated and passionate person who is looking for a new challenge.

The ideal candidate should be capable to:

- Coordinate and manage the work related to the Group's Warranty and After-Sales Service.
- Manage the human and material resources to comply with the agreed scope of the guarantees of commercial supplies.
- Supervise and coordinate the own staff and subcontractors in the execution of After-sales work.
- Follow up Economy Guarantee Projects.
- Deal directly with the costumers performing the following functions in order to: plan and coordinate the work; find out the potential needs through commercial visits to the Plants; prepare commercial proposals and negotiate their conditions; and retain and track Customers.
- Implement local forms of work in the countries within its scope of action, to the extent of its possibilities, leading the stabilization of relationships with suppliers, companies and subcontractors, in coordination with those responsible for Purchasing, Manufacturing, Logistics and O&M.
- Procure, coordinate and maintain on daily bases, with respect to its area of influence, relationships with suppliers, companies, and subcontractors, relying on those responsible for the Purchasing, Manufacturing, Logistics and O&M departments.

Desired requirements

- Completed university studies with a focus on electronics or electrification.
- Candidates to this offer shall be in possession of all the permits and requirements to work regularly at the US provided by the relevant US Administration.
- At least 2 years of professional experience on the sector.

- Fluent in business English is a prerequisite for this position, Spanish will be valued.
- Proactive, self-motivated and standalone worker.
- Availability to travel. Our new projects are located in Hawai'i, Pensilvania, California and New York.

Company Benefits

- Competitive Salary
- Professional Development
- Coporate Phone
- Flexible Schedule
- Retirement Plan

If you are interested, contact: fronquillo@greenpower.es